Student Learning Outcomes Assessment: See instructor's course information sheet for information on assessment that may include the following: pretests and posttests, quizzes, discussions, essays and/or other types of assessment tools.

Course Evaluations: Refer to instructor's course information sheet for specifics on coursework and grading.

Attendance Policy: As per the SPC General Catalog: Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive as defined in the course syllabus. When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period as determined by the instructor. Students are officially enrolled in all courses for which they pay tuition and fees at the time of registration. Should a student, for any reason, delay in reporting to a class after official enrollment, absences will be attributed to the student from the first-class meeting. Students who enroll in a course but have "Never Attended" by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor. Instructors are responsible for clearly stating their administrative drop policy in the course syllabus, and it is the student's responsibility to be aware of that policy. It is the student's responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through Texan Connect. If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment.

See instructor's course information sheet for additions to the attendance policy.

Academic Integrity: As per the SPC General Catalog: It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

Cheating: Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination, obtaining information during an examination from the textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in an office are examples of cheating. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length, as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.

Plagiarism: Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism; therefore, any student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identical expression of material taken from books, encyclopedias, magazines and other reference works, or from the themes, reports or other writings of fellow student, is guilty of plagiarism.

More Information About Plagiarism and Cheating: Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, examinations, and papers. Failure to comply with this policy will result in an F for the assignment and can result in an F for the course if circumstances warrant.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following: 1. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail order term paper mill; 2. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation; 3. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; 4. Missing in-text citations; and 5. Using any form of A.I. to create or write your responses

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following: 1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion; 2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given; 3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet, apps) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment; 4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage; 5. Taking an examination for another; 6. Altering grade records; 7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment; 8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's; 9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Student Code of Conduct Policy: As per the General Catalog: Rules and regulations relating to the students at South Plains College are made with the view of protecting the best interests of the individual, the general welfare of the entire student body and the educational objectives of the college. As in any segment of society, a college community must be guided by standards that are stringent enough to prevent disorder, yet moderate enough to provide an atmosphere conducive to intellectual and personal development. A high standard of conduct is expected of all students. When a student enrolls at South Plains College, it is assumed that the student accepts the obligations of performance and behavior imposed by the college relevant to its lawful missions, processes and functions. Obedience to the law, respect for properly constituted authority, personal honor, integrity and common sense guide the actions of each member of the college community both in and out of the classroom. Students are subject to federal, state and local laws, as well as South Plains College rules and regulations. A student is not entitled to greater immunities or privileges before the law than those enjoyed by other citizens. Students are subject to such reasonable disciplinary action as the administration of the college may consider appropriate, including suspension and expulsion in appropriate cases for breach of federal, state or local laws, or college rules and regulations. This principle extends to conduct off-campus which is likely to have adverse effects on the college or on the educational process which identifies the offender as an unfit associate for fellow students. Any student who fails to perform according to expected standards may be asked to withdraw. Rules and regulations regarding student conduct appear in the current Student Guide.

In addition to the above policy: Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

How this Course is Conducted:

This course is a blended course, which means you will attend the class for instruction and lectures, and you will access Blackboard online for a portion of your coursework and your grades.

Since this is a blended course, you must have access to a computer. More information about technology for the course is below.

Logging into Blackboard:

To access your course, go to <https://southplainscollege.blackboard.com/> or go to the SPC Homepage and click on the "Login to" link in the top right-hand portion of the page and then click on the Blackboard link on the pull-down or you can type or copy the address into the address window of your computer. I recommend that you bookmark Blackboard on your computer for quick access. You can also log into MySPC and there is a Blackboard link there. Once you reach the site you will click "Log In". The log-in screen will come up asking for your user name and password. Simply follow the instructions on the screen.

Other Information concerning Blackboard:

Please remember that it is your responsibility to have a backup plan if your computer goes down. Please have this plan in place now and do not wait until it is a crisis situation. If you lose your course work due to bad flash drives, Internet service down, computer crash, or your dog ate your homework, there is nothing I can do about it. THIS IS YOUR WARNING TO HAVE A BACKUP PLAN IN PLACE.
- IMPORTANT: Most technical issues are related to using the incorrect internet browser (try using Google Chrome or Firefox instead of Internet Explorer). Please note that I do NOT recommend use of any handheld devices for taking this course. Cellphones are wonderful but not for course work done on the Internet.

- Anti-virus Software: Please make sure that your computer has an up-to-date antivirus software program installed.

Academic Integrity:

In addition to the policy in the Common Course Syllabus, it should be understood that students found guilty of cheating or plagiarism will earn a zero on the work in question for the first offense and will be dropped from the course with an 'F' should a second offense occur. Any amount of dishonesty is subject to these consequences, whether a lot or a little; this can include but is not limited to one copied sentence of a written assignment, a missing citation, an entire paper copied from someone/somewhere else, one plagiarized post on a discussion board, one copied exam item, looking at the scantron of another student during an exam or an exam or other coursework completed by someone other than yourself. You have also committed academic dishonesty when sharing course content/items/answers. This includes sharing course content with classmates or future students as well as sharing course content on websites such as Quizlet, Course Hero, or similar “study applications.” For further information and examples please see the Catalog, Student Guide, or refer to www.plagiarism.org.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Resources:

There are now websites that will generate semi-unique material that somewhat resembles original written content. Since the technology is available to create this content, technology is also available to detect this content. Make no mistake, this is plagiarism. The use of generative or adaptive AI tools (such as ChatGPT, DALL-E, Quillbot, etc.) are not permitted in this class; therefore, any use of AI tools for work in this class may be considered a violation of South Plains College's Academic Integrity policy and Student Code of Conduct, since the work is not your own. The use of unauthorized AI tools will result in a grade of '0' on the first attempt. A second attempt will result in a course drop with an F by the instructor and the student will be reported to the Dean of Students for disciplinary actions.

Guidelines for Classroom Behavior:

The following is in addition to the Common Course Syllabus:

I would like to welcome all students into an environment that creates a sense of community, pride, courtesy and respect; we are all here to work cooperatively and to learn together. Disruptive behavior is not tolerated.

To further classify: Disruptive behavior includes but is not limited to being rude to an instructor or other students, walking out of class before class ends, using an electronic device, making "side comments" to other students, or any other non-adult behavior as defined by the instructor. For additional information on student misconduct, refer to the Student Guide. Failure to abide by policies may result in expulsion from the class and an “X” or “F” for the semester.

Statement from SPC regarding COVID-19:

If you are experiencing any of the following symptoms, please do not attend class and either seek medical attention or get tested for COVID-19.

- Cough, shortness of breath, difficulty breathing
- Fever or chills
- Muscles or body aches
- Vomiting or diarrhea
- New loss of taste and smell

Please also notify DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN, Associate Director of Health & Wellness, at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or 806-716-2376.

Content Warning:

Students are advised that difficult or sensitive issues may be represented or discussed in this class. While care will always be taken not to cause distress and to create a welcoming learning environment for everyone, there may be occasions where you will confront images or texts, or where you hear discussions that are uncomfortable for you. I will not issue trigger warnings with respect to potentially challenging or distressing content, for several reasons. I do not presume in advance to know what content or discussions may cause you distress; trauma is a deeply complex and personal experience. Instead, I will provide context for materials that feature content generally found to be challenging and make it clear why I am showing particular images or we are reading particular texts. If you ever feel unable to continue to participate in a particular class, you may leave at any point and will not be challenged. I will follow up to address any concerns and provide additional resources for support. You are also, of course, welcome to share any concerns about the course content you may have at any time during the term, and I promise to listen openly and respectfully.

Basic Needs Statement:

Other factors may also affect your ability to thrive in this class. In particular, students who have difficulty affording groceries or accessing sufficient food to eat every day or who lack a safe and stable place to live may find that their situation affects their performance. I encourage each of you to contact the Dean of Students or the Health and Wellness Office for support. You may also notify me, if you feel comfortable doing so, and I will do my best to help you identify resources, or simply walk with you to the campus offices that have resources set aside and additional information for all students.

Course Policy and Requirements

This is what you need to do to earn your grade:

Textbook:

The textbook for ANY section of SOCI-1301, Introduction to Sociology, with Mrs. Fitzgerald is an Open Educational Resource (OER).

“Open Educational Resources (OER) are learning, teaching and research materials in any format and medium that reside in the public domain or are under copyright that have been released under an open license, that permit no-cost access, re-use, re-purpose, adaptation and redistribution by others.”
(<https://www.unesco.org/en/open-educational-resources>).

This means you will NOT HAVE TO PURCHASE any supplemental materials for this class. This is an intentional attempt to reduce the cost of Higher Education in the hopes of making it truly accessible to everyone. The OER textbook is a supplemental resource, not the primary resource for material on the examinations. The OER textbook has excellent information contained within its pages, but I want to make it crystal clear that the primary source should be the PowerPoints, just to make sure there is no confusion. Please, if you have questions regarding the examination material, or any other questions regarding the course, do not hesitate to email me. EMAIL is THE BEST METHOD of contact for me. I keep every email, from every student, in a file in my South Plains College (SPC) email account (efitzgerald@southplainscollege.edu). This allows me to “track” conversations I have with every student. I cannot “save” voicemails, text messages, or Blackboard messages in this fashion, so please use my and your SPC email. Thank you.

Overview of Assignments:

Exams:

- There will be five (5) exams. To avoid scheduling problems, the following exam dates are "set in stone," therefore do not schedule conflicts. If there is a conflict with a religious holiday let me know by January 31, 2024 or you will be expected to complete the exam on the scheduled date.
- All exams will be delivered in class, and you will have one attempt to complete the exam. If you miss an exam, a grade of "0" will be recorded for that exam grade and you may take a make-up comprehensive exam at the end of the semester.

Chapter Quizzes:

There are ten ten-question multiple choice and true/false quizzes. The chapter quizzes are 30-minute timed quizzes and will close at the deadline. Do not click on the link until you are ready to take the test. Practice quizzes and flashcards are available to use as study tools and are taken from the same test bank as the chapter quizzes. If you fail to submit 5 quizzes you may be dropped from the course.

Class assignments:

Five written assignments will be assigned throughout the semester with each unit. All instructions for each assignment are included within the PDF documents attached to each submission link within that folder of Blackboard.

Break down of points for the course:

5 Exams @ 100 each =	500 points
5 Class assignments @ 50 each =	250 points
10 Chapter Quizzes @ 25 each =	250 points
Total =	1000 points

All grades will be posted in Blackboard under the My Grades link.

Feedback: I will reply to all messages or emails within 24 hours during the week; 48 hours on the weekend. InQuizitive homework assignments will be uploaded to the My Grades tab automatically. If you increase your grade after answering the minimum 13 questions, your grade will automatically update again. I will grade your Assignments within two weeks. Exams will be graded automatically.

Total Possible Points 1000 points. In addition, grades are NOT automatically rounded up.

Grading scale: A = 900 – 1000; B = 800 – 899.99; C = 700 – 799.99; D = 600 – 699.99; F = 0 – 599.99.

This scale is the typical: A = 90%-100%; B=80%-89.99%; C=70%-79.99%; D=60%-69.99%; and F=0%-59.99%.

If you have any questions about any of the course work or anything about the course material do not hesitate to speak to me during office hours, before/during/after class, or via e-mail or Blackboard messaging.

Study materials are provided under each module link on your Blackboard menu panel. Study tools include Power Points, Course Outlines and Materials, and Practice Quizzes to help students study the materials for the course and prepare for exams. The practice questions come from the same test bank as some of the questions that will be on your exam. You may take each quiz as many times as you want, and they are not timed. The grades you earn on the Practice Quizzes are not counted in your total points earned, so they do not raise or lower your grade for the course. However, taking the Practice Quizzes may help your exam grades.

Drop Policy:

In addition to the catalog policy of the General Catalog, a record of attendance will be maintained. It may be considered that a student may be dropped from the course with an X if they miss a minimum of 2 weeks of class/BB assignments with no communication and/or is earning an F. If absences occur after the final drop date you will not be dropped and will receive the grade you have earned. Attendance will be taken every class period beginning the first day of class and will be used to document attendance.

Extra credit opportunities will be made available during the semester. I recommend that you take advantage of those opportunities as they become available as I will not make extra credit available on individual request.

Remember that the official deadlines are when the work is due, but I recommend that you set your personal deadlines for when you do your work a couple of days before the official due date.

Note: The instructor reserves the right to modify the course syllabus and policies, as well as notify students of any changes, at any point during the semester.
